Facebook: www.facebook.com/gstrat

Property means the property you intend to let.

Tenancy means the entire period during which the you remain in lawful occupation of the Property including the Initial Letting Period, any renewal, period of holding over or new Tenancy.

Initial Letting Period means the fixed term of the Tenancy.

Guarantor means the person guaranteeing your obligations to the Landlord.

Tenancy Agreement means the agreement between the Landlord and you concerning the rental of the Property

2. PRE-LETTINGS REQUIREMENTS

2.1 To reserve a Property you each need to complete a Reservation Form and provide two forms of acceptable identification and the details of two Guarantors. Before we can process the Reservation Form you each need to pay us an administration fee of £150.00 including VAT.

2.2 We will undertake in house "Right to Rent" checks of you and of your proposed Guarantors. While we do this we may continue to market the Property but will only accept and process one application at a time. The Property will be held for you until all checks have been completed. If any Guarantor proves not to be suitable for any reason we shall only continue to process your application if an alternative Guarantor is provided and an additional administration fee is payable upon request.

- 2.3 If there is more than one prospective tenant, one of you must act as the Lead Tenant. All correspondence and communication from us will be only to the Lead Tenant who will act on behalf of all of you.
- 2.4 Provided that all Tenants and Guarantors are acceptable to the Landlord and pass all checks the Tenancy Agreement will be sent to the Lead Tenant for each of you to sign together with any guarantee for your Guarantors to sign. All properties are let on a one Tenancy basis where all Tenants are jointly and individually liable for the rent payable for the Property and observing and performing the tenant's obligations in the Tenancy Agreement. Guarantors will guarantee the rent and obligations of the person they guarantee.
- 2.5 You must pay a deposit on reservation of the Tenancy. This will be held accordance with the terms of the Tenancy Agreement and in an authorised Tenancy Deposit scheme. You may have chosen a property that does not require a deposit.
- 2.6 The deposit will be returned once an end of tenancy check-out has been carried out by an independent inventory company and all appropriate deductions agreed between you and the Landlord or any dispute being adjudicated upon.
- 2.7 Before you can move in we will require the following:-
- (a) The original Tenancy Agreement signed by all each of you;
 - (b) The balance shown above (in cleared funds);
 - (c) The signed guarantees;
 - (d) (If the rent for the Property is to be paid to us) a signed Standing Order Mandate from each of you.

3. MOVING IN

- 3.1 All appointments to move into the Property must take place during our normal offices hours.
- 3.2 You will be provided with a detailed Inventory and Schedule of Condition prepared by an independent company. Your Landlord will pay for this. Each of you will be asked to sign the Inventory and Schedule of Condition; any queries or discrepancies are to be raised with us within a week. If you rented a property that did not require you to pay a deposit, a detailed Inventory and Schedule of Condition will not be provided. You must, on the day of moving in, take pictures of any defects that you do not wish to be liable for at the end of your tenancy, and email them to inventory@strats-estates.co.uk. These will be held on file and used for you against any disputes that may arise at the end of your tenancy.
- 3.3 You will each be provided with a key(s) to the main entrance door and one key for each bedroom door will be provided (where applicable). You must not have cut any new keys or change the locks at the Property without the Landlord's permission (except in the case of emergencies). If you do so you may be responsible for any costs reasonably incurred in replacing the locks or keys.

3.4 From the commencement of the Tenancy (irrespective of when you move in) you are responsible for the payment of all utilities and other outgoings specified in the Tenancy Agreement. You must also register for Council tax.

4. FUTURE PAYMENTS OF RENT

4.1 All payments of rent are required in advance in accordance with the Payment Schedule set out above. It is your responsibility to ensure all rent is paid on time.

4.2 You must ensure that the details on your Standing Order Mandate are correct and must check that your bank or building society has received the mandate in time to pay the First Instalment Payment. It can take up to three working days for funds to be transferred from a bank or building society account to us or the Landlord so you must ensure all payments are arranged to be received by us or the Landlord on the due date.

4.3 If we are instructed to collect the rent payable in respect of the Property you agree to pay the following charges:-

- (a) if the rent is overdue by 7 days or more a first reminder will be sent and a charge of £24 including VAT will be made;
- (b) if the rent is overdue by 14 days or more a second reminder will be sent and a further charge of £24 including VAT will be made;
- (c) further reminders may follow thereafter and will be charged at the same rate; and
- (d) an administration charge of £24 including VAT will be payable for any unpaid standing order payments.

4.4 You authorise us to deduct such charges reasonably and properly incurred from your deposit.

5. RENEWAL OF THE TENANCY

5.1 If your Landlord is prepared to renew your Tenancy at the end of the term you may be offered a renewal tenancy. If so, we will discuss such terms with you and you and your Guarantors will be requested to sign a new tenancy agreement and guarantee(s) and any other necessary forms to ensure the new tenancy is in place before the existing tenancy comes to an end.

5.2 We generally commence advertising student properties in December each year. At this point we may write to you to establish whether you wish to vacate the Property at the end of your Tenancy Agreement or seek a renewal. You must provide us with written confirmation upon receiving our notification within 1 month in order to be considered for a new tenancy.

5.3 Upon renewal of a Tenancy you each agree to pay to us a tenancy renewal fee of £100.00 including VAT which must be paid before the new tenancy commences.

6. MOVING OUT

- 6.1 You are responsible for leaving the Property in the condition it was in as shown by the Inventory and Schedule of Condition, allowing for fair wear and tear.
- 6.2 A check-out report will be carried out. If a dispute arises, we will instruct an independent inventory clerk at your cost. Any authorised deductions from the deposit will need to be agreed in writing by all of you. In the event of damage exceeding the amount of the deposit held, you and your Guarantors will need to pay the shortfall. If agreement cannot be reached of the amount of deductions any dispute will be dealt with under the tenancy deposit scheme.
- 6.3 If you have rented a property that did not require a deposit, the same procedure applies. You and your Guarantors will be liable for costs incurred for authorised end of tenancy deductions.

7. ADVERTISING BOARD

- 7.1 Any advertising boards erected at the Property with the agreement of the Landlord are the property of us. These must not be removed or defaced in any way. If such advertising board is removed or defaced by you or any other persons acting on your behalf you agree to pay us a charge of £30 including VAT.

8. CANCELLATION POLICY

- 8.1 We operate a strict 28 day policy to complete your proposed tenancy application from the date of reservation. If we do not receive a complete application by the 28th day from the date of reservation, we reserve the right to cancel your proposed tenancy. You will be refunded in full your security deposit however the administration fee will be non-refundable.
- 8.2 Unless you have already moved into the Property, you and all the other intended occupiers may cancel the Tenancy Agreement (by all of you giving us written notice), no more than 14 days from the date of reservation (the "Initial Cancellation Period"). If you cancel the Tenancy Agreement in those circumstances, we will make no separate cancellation charge but we will return only your deposit. However, if you have moved into the Property you lose any right to be released from the Tenancy Agreement.
- 8.3 If you cancel your Tenancy Agreement (by all of you giving us written notice) outside the Initial Cancellation Period but before 1 August in the year notice is given, you may only do so on the payment of a cancellation fee of £180 including VAT per occupier. You agree that we may deduct such sum from any deposit you paid before returning the balance to you.

9. SUBLETTING

You must not sublet the Property or advertise it in any form of media (print or digital) or messaging website or app or take in paying guests or lodgers unless the landlord agrees.

10. TERMS OF BUSINESS PRIVACY NOTICE

10.1 Data Protection Privacy Notice

We use the information you provide primarily for the provision of property services to you and for related purposes including:

- updating and enhancing client records
